Which phones do you support ?

Author:
www.freespeech.co.uk

Created On: 17 Nov 2005 10:54 AM

We support VOIP phones using the SIP protocol.
All phones must support symmetric RTP correctly (this means they must honour the a:direction part of an SDP - yes I know, too technical). The following are advisable for NAT traversal

» UPnP
» STUN

Unfortunately some phones do not support these well.

We recommend you choose a product from our ez-connect range, this will be supported and auto-configured.